

Internship

Value for Good is hiring an intern to join its growing team in Berlin for a 3 - 6 month period starting as soon as possible.

What You Bring

- Bachelor or Master degree from a world class university with outstanding academic record
- One year of internship or work experience (with a management consulting company would be a plus)
- Native in German and excellent language and writing skills in English
- Excellent research and quantitative analysis skills
- Highly developed interpersonal communication abilities
- Advanced PowerPoint and Excel skills
- A keen interest to work on pressing societal issues

What We Offer

- Challenging and exciting projects with the potential for impact across the private, public and social sectors
- Smart and collegial team with international backgrounds
- Client contact from the start (e.g. with largest UN agency, major foundations and multinational companies)
- Opportunity to take on responsibility on client projects
- €2000 per month gross salary and flexible work arrangements

About Us

Value for Good is a specialised consulting firm that leverages the methods and tools of top management consulting for social good. We work across sectors, enabling companies, public and international organisations as well as foundations to create, increase and measure social impact.

SUSTAINABILITY CONSULTING

We advise businesses on how to make sustainability activities strategically pay into core business priorities and contribute to competitive advantage.

PARTNERSHIP ADVISORY SERVICES

We provide strategic advice to partnerships among private, public and social sector organisations to help them efficiently maximise impact.

SOCIAL IMPACT CONSULTING

We provide management consulting services to international organisations, the public sector and foundations to help (im)prove value for money.

Application Requirements

Motivation letter One-page CV High school and university transcripts

Please send your application to talent@valueforgood.com by 15th March 2019